About Us

Sonalika Tractors, one of the leading manufacturers and the number one export brand from India, has established its robust presence in domestic as well as international markets in 130+ countries.

Under our Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) wing, we have various projects aimed at promoting agriculture, organic farming, women's empowerment, and children's education. We are dedicated to enhancing education through our comprehensive initiative, Sonalika Gurukul.

Our commitment involves providing children with age-appropriate premium content in both print and digital formats through Sonalika Publications and Sonalika e-Gurukul, respectively. Our extensive collection includes over 50 books in English, Hindi, and bilingual formats, along with more than 200 educational videos.

Our primary goal is to deliver captivating stories that are morally driven, inspirational, and rich in knowledge, spanning various genres. With a focus on children aged 3-15 years, we have thoughtfully incorporated engaging activities into our books. We firmly believe that our collection of books can highly enrich the learning experience for children.

Our Vision

At Sonalika Publications, our focus is on educating children, cultivating their social and emotional awareness, and promoting the idea of sustainability among them. We firmly believe that education has the power to bring about promising change, and through our stories, we are dedicated to positively impacting society. Therefore, with our exciting and motivational books, we aim to nurture the habit of reading among youngsters and empower them to become valuable assets for the environment and community.

“Inspiration is the source of infinite energy and a child has an abundance of both”

Our Outreach

Stories to Stage

Stories to Stage is an innovative program by Sonalika Publications that empowers children to unleash their creativity through acting and storytelling. Through this initiative, we invite children to step onto the stage and bring the enchanting narratives published by Sonalika Publications to life.

Captivating Sessions for Young Minds

We aim to inspire and empower children through captivating sessions that foster imagination and knowledge acquisition. Through the power of storytelling, interactive activities, and shared experiences, we strive to make learning an exciting adventure for every child involved, leaving a lasting impact on their young minds.

Libraries and Reading Corners

Sonalika Gurukul is on a mission to revive the love for books and promote reading among the new generation. By establishing libraries in government schools and communities, we aim to bridge the literacy gap and empower children in slum areas with the precious gift of reading. Our dedicated reading corners serve as enriching spaces for children to explore the world of literature and experience the nostalgic scent of paper once again.

Literature Fests

We've teamed up with the Bookaroo Children's Literature Festival, bringing the "Joy of Reading" to thousands of children and enthusiasts. At the Kukdukoo Fest, we embraced learning during a vibrant 2-day family festival and sparked inspiration in young minds. Our engagement extended to the Delhi Book Fair as well. Through these vibrant literature festivals, we've touched the lives of children across cities, including Delhi, Gurgaon, Jaipur, and Baroda.

Sonalika Gurukul Centres

Sonalika Gurukul Centres stand as a distinctive program meticulously crafted to foster the holistic development of children. We have successfully brought about positive transformations in the lives of children from slum areas such as Noor Nagar, Seemant Vihar, Arjun Camp, Tughlakabad, and Taimoor Nagar, as well as in the villages of Uttar Pradesh and the tribal regions of Jharkhand.

Sonalika Udaan Classes

Sonalika Udaan Classes is a platform that aims to nurture imagination, foster literacy, and empower children through a diverse array of learning resources, such as engaging videos, interactive book reading sessions, stimulating quizzes, captivating storytelling, and enlightening awareness classes. Through our Udaan Classes, we have touched the lives of over 12,000 children across 25 different cities.

Towards a Greener Future

Sonalika Publications ensures environment-friendly practices and aims to reduce the carbon footprint. We harm no tree in the process of printing. We believe in recycling paper and helping nature bloom.
